Approved For Release 2006/07/21 : CIA-RDP75B00380R000400130008-0 CONFIDE NITIAL

Journal - Office of Legislative Counsel Tuesday - 27 November 1973 Page 2

could defer his meeting with the Subcommittee until he had had a chance get his feet on the ground. Hackett said that Ambassador Davies' appear had been rescheduled for Thursday at 10:30 a.m. and suggested that be present at that time along with George Churchill, of Davies' staff. A had mentioned to Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House Foreign Affair Committee, I told Hackett that it had been our experience that our briefi were much more useful if they were given individually and not as part of joint session. He said this was acceptable to him, but he would like to a least have immediately follow the Subcommittee's session with David to avoid calling two separate meetings. I told him I thought this could be worked out satisfactorily and would be back in touch with him. 25X1 John Goldsmith, Senate Armed Service: Committee staff, called to say he would be leaving Friday for another tr to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the intin the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looked as the staff. As a counter of the staff at	25X1	3.		Talked to Clif	f Hackett, Subco	mmittee on
I told him was back at work, but I thought it would be better could defer his meeting with the Subcommittee until he had had a chance get his feet on the ground. Hackett said that Ambassador Davies' appear had been rescheduled for Thursday at 10:30 a.m. and suggested that be present at that time along with George Churchill, of Davies' staff. A had mentioned to Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House Foreign Affai. Committee, I told Hackett that it had been our experience that our briefing were much more useful if they were given individually and not as part of joint session. He said this was acceptable to him, but he would like to a least have immediately follow the Subcommittee's session with Dav to avoid calling two separate meetings. I told him I thought this could be worked out satisfactorily and would be back in touch with him. 25X1 4. John Goldsmith, Senate Armed Service: Committee staff, called to say he would be leaving Friday for another tr to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the intin the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of opeople before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 5. Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Affait. Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Church	25¥1	Europe, al	bout his request for
could defer his meeting with the Subcommittee until he had had a chance get his feet on the ground. Hackett said that Ambassador Davies' appearable had been rescheduled for Thursday at 10:30 a.m. and suggested that be present at that time along with George Churchill, of Davies' staff. A had mentioned to Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House Foreign Affair. Committee, I told Hackett that it had been our experience that our briefice were much more useful if they were given individually and not as part of joint session. He said this was acceptable to him, but he would like to a least have immediately follow the Subcommittee's session with Davito avoid calling two separate meetings. I told him I thought this could be worked out satisfactorily and would be back in touch with him. 25X1 4. John Goldsmith, Senate Armed Service: Committee staff, called to say he would be leaving Friday for another tr to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the ini in the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of people before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 5. Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with Stafe witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Churchet.
get his feet on the ground. Hackett said that Ambassador Davies' appear. had been rescheduled for Thursday at 10:30 a.m. and suggested that be present at that time along with George Churchill, of Davies' staff. A had mentioned to Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House Foreign Affai. Committee, I told Hackett that it had been our experience that our briefit were much more useful if they were given individually and not as part of joint session. He said this was acceptable to him, but he would like to a least have immediately follow the Subcommittee's session with Dav to avoid calling two separate meetings. I told him I thought this could be worked out satisfactorily and would be back in touch with him. 25X1 4. John Goldsmith, Senate Armed Service: Committee staff, called to say he would be leaving Friday for another tr to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the ini in the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other: also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of a people before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 5. Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with Stafe witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Churchet.	20/(1 had been rescheduled for Thursday at 10:30 a.m. and suggested that be present at that time along with George Churchill, of Davies' staff. A had mentioned to Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House Foreign Affai. Committee, I told Hackett that it had been our experience that our briefi were much more useful if they were given individually and not as part of joint session. He said this was acceptable to him, but he would like to a least have immediately follow the Subcommittee's session with Dav to avoid calling two separate meetings. I told him I thought this could be worked out satisfactorily and would be back in touch with him. 25X1 4. John Goldsmith, Senate Armed Service: Committee staff, called to say he would be leaving Friday for another tr to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the ini in the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other; also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of competition of the staff, and explained that a situation briefing from some of competition of the staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Churchet.		get his feet on the ground. Hackett said that Ambassador Davies' appearance be present at that time along with George Churchill, of Davies' staff. A had mentioned to Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House Foreign Affai. Committee, I told Hackett that it had been our experience that our briefi were much more useful if they were given individually and not as part of joint session. He said this was acceptable to him, but he would like to a least have immediately follow the Subcommittee's session with Dav to avoid calling two separate meetings. I told him I thought this could be worked out satisfactorily and would be back in touch with him. 25X1 4. John Goldsmith, Senate Armed Service: Committee staff, called to say he would be leaving Friday for another tr to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the ini in the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of compectation of the subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Churchet.		had been rescheduled for Thursday at 10:30 a.m. and suggested that also 25X1 had mentioned to Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House Foreign Affai. Committee, I told Hackett that it had been our experience that our briefi were much more useful if they were given individually and not as part of joint session. He said this was acceptable to him, but he would like to a least have immediately follow the Subcommittee's session with Day to avoid calling two separate meetings. I told him I thought this could be worked out satisfactorily and would be back in touch with him. 25X1 4. John Goldsmith, Senate Armed Service: Committee staff, called to say he would be leaving Friday for another tr to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the int in the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of compeople before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 5. Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Churcher.		be present at that time along with George Churchill, of Davies' staff. As I
Committee, I told Hackett that it had been our experience that our briefit were much more useful if they were given individually and not as part of joint session. He said this was acceptable to him, but he would like to a least have immediately follow the Subcommittee's session with Daw to avoid calling two separate meetings. I told him I thought this could be worked out satisfactorily and would be back in touch with him. 25X1 4. John Goldsmith, Senate Armed Service: Committee staff, called to say he would be leaving Friday for another tr to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the int in the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other; also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of a people before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 5. Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Church		had mentioned to Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House Foreign Affairs were much more useful if they were given individually and not as part of joint session. He said this was acceptable to him, but he would like to a least have immediately follow the Subcommittee's session with Day to avoid calling two separate meetings. I told him I thought this could be worked out satisfactorily and would be back in touch with him. 25X1 4. John Goldsmith, Senate Armed Service: Committee staff, called to say he would be leaving Friday for another tr to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the int in the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of compeople before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 5. Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Churcher.		Committee. I told Hackett that it had been our experience that our briefings joint session. He said this was acceptable to him, but he would like to a least have immediately follow the Subcommittee's session with Day to avoid calling two separate meetings. I told him I thought this could be worked out satisfactorily and would be back in touch with him. 25X1 4. John Goldsmith, Senate Armed Service: Committee staff, called to say he would be leaving Friday for another tr to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the intin the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of competition of the people before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 5. Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Churchen.		were much more useful if they were given individually and not as part of a least have immediately follow the Subcommittee's session with Day to avoid calling two separate meetings. I told him I thought this could be worked out satisfactorily and would be back in touch with him. 25X1 4. John Goldsmith, Senate Armed Service Committee staff, called to say he would be leaving Friday for another treat to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the intended in the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of a people before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 25X1 25X1 5. Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Churchen.	25¥1	joint session. He said this was acceptable to him, but he would like to at
to avoid calling two separate meetings. I told him I thought this could be worked out satisfactorily and would be back in touch with him. 25X1 4. John Goldsmith, Senate Armed Service: Committee staff, called to say he would be leaving Friday for another tr to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the int in the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of people before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will bout tomorrow at 4 p.m) 25X1 25X1 25X1 Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Church.	25/1
25X1
John Goldsmith, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, called to say he would be leaving Friday for another tr to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the ini in the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of opeople before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with Stafe witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Church		worked out satisfactorily and would be back in touch with him.
Committee staff, called to say he would be leaving Friday for another tr to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the int in the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of people before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 25X1 25X1 Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af Committee staff, and explained that before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Churce.				• to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the infinite power in the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of a people before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 25X1 25X1 Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Churchest.	25X1	4.		John Goldsmit	h, Senate Armed	l Services to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the infinite power in the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of a people before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 25X1 25X1 Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Churchest.		Committee staff, called to say he would be leaving Friday for another trip in the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of people before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 25X1 25X1 25X1 Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Church.		to Southeast Asia. He said the "ostensible purpose" of his trip is the interest further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of a people before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 25X1 25X1 25X1 5.		in the POW/MIA situation. However, he said that with the likelihood of a
also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of opeople before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 25X1 25X1 25X1 Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Church		further stepup of activity in Southeast Asia he would be looking at other matters
Vientiane on 7 December, and Bangkok from 9-11 December. I offered have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of a people before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 25X1 25X1 25X1 Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Church.		also. He said his itinerary is not firm but he plans to be in Saigon on 4 December, have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of opeople before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will bout tomorrow at 4 p.m) 25X1 25X1 25X1 Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Church people before his departure and he welcomed this suggestion. (He will be out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 25X1 25X1 5.		have him come out to the building for a situation briefing from some of our out tomorrow at 4 p.m) 25X1 25X1 5. Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Church
25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1 Called Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Af Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Church	25X1		_
25X1 25X1 Committee staff, and explained that before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Church	0574		•
25X1 Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Church	25/1
25X1 Committee staff, and explained that and I would be glad to ap before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Church	25¥1	. [1
before the Subcommittee on Europe to talk about but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Church but we did not wish to participate jointly with State witnesses since we fe important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Churc						glad to appear important to keep intelligence carefully separated from policy discussion Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Church	25X1
Hackett accepted this and said that since Roger Davies and George Churc were appearing at 1030 hours, and I should arrive about 1100 hours.	25/4
	25X1	were appear	ring at 1030 hours,	and I should	arrive about 110	00 hours.

CRC, 7/17/2003

MORI/CDF